

The Centre for Lay Education presents:

The Soul of All Great Designs a novel by Neil Bissoondath

3 Tuesday Evenings and 1 Saturday afternoon.

Registration: $50

Tuesday, January 20th, 2009 from 6 pm to 8 pm

Tuesday, January 27th, 2009, from 6 pm to 8 pm

Tuesday, February 3rd, 2009, from 6 pm to 8 pm

Saturday, February 7th, 2009 from 1 pm to 3 pm.

All sessions take place at the Montreal Diocesan Theological College,
3475 University, Montreal. (On University, below Milton.)

On our 3 Tuesday evenings, we will explore the world of the novel as it impacts us as readers. How has the creative imagination of the author sparked our own creative thoughts and imaginations?

On the Saturday session we welcome an encounter with the author himself, Neil Bissoondath.

Our 4 sessions will be facilitated by Dr. Norman F. Cornett.

An independent scholar and translator, Norman F. Cornett, ph.d, publishes in Canadian and American journals. He leads workshops in French and English on creative vision and artistic development. Dr. Cornett forms the subject of a National Film Board of Canada documentary directed by Alanis Obomsawin, recipient of the Governor General's Award.

The novel can be purchased from Librairie Paragraphe Bookstore, 2220 McGill College Ave., Montreal, H3A-2P9. Copies have been ordered and put aside.
Tel: 514-845-5811

Registration:

$50 cheque to "MDTC"
(Montreal Diocesan Theological College)

Email your name and address to Tim Smart and mail your cheque for $50 to the address below.

Tim Smart
tsmart@montreal.anglican.ca

Centre for Lay Education

At Montreal Diocesan Theological College

3475 University
Montreal, Quebec
H3A-2A8

(The Rev.) Tim Smart
Phone: 514-849-4437
E-mail: tsmart@montreal.anglican.ca

Neil Bissoondath