

Sponsorship of Refugees: What does it mean?

How can churches work together to sponsor a refugee?

An Information Meeting hosted by the Anglican Deanery of Ste. Anne and St. George's Anglican Church in Ste. Anne de Bellevue.
This is an exploratory session to provide information about refugee sponsorship.

Wednesday, April 1st, 2009, at St. George's Church

(St. George Street and Maple Avenue in Ste. Anne de Bellevue, one block north of Lakeshore Road)

Speaker: The Rev. Glynis Williams

Director of Action Refugies Montréal and Diocesan Coordinator of Refugee Sponsorship

Members of PWRDF will be present to describe a 50th anniversary sponsorship project.

7:00 pm Dessert and Coffee/Tea

7:30 pm Welcome from the Regional Dean, Michael Johnson
Opening prayer, Introduction of the Speaker

8:30 pm Questions/Discussion

The program will include a video describing the role played by a Toronto Church in sponsorship of an individual from the Democratic Republic of the Congo. The video includes Annie's testimony of her journey as a refugee and her sponsorship by Holy Trinity Church, Toronto.

Sponsorship is a wonderful opportunity for parishes to work together on a shared project. All are welcome. Those in positions of church leadership are particularly encouraged to attend.
